

't Putje * * *

Whether you come for business or pleasure, 't Putje offers you the relaxation you deserve.

This eye-catching three star hotel exudes warmth and cosiness in an elegant surrounding. Staying at 't Putje always feels like coming home. And for those who like to dine in a quiet, unhurried atmosphere of a Sunday afternoon, they can enjoy the refined cuisine of the restaurant.

Thanks to its central location, you can feel the heartbeat of Bruges here. The rich past is very nearby : not only the Steenstraat, the Minnewaterpark and the market-place, but also the belfry and the town hall of Bruges can be reached within a few minutes' walk.

To have a taste of contemporary culture, you only need to cross the street. There you find the stylish concert hall, that was built for the occasion of Bruges 2002, Cultural capital of Europe.
